Your Duty of Disclosure

Whether you are entering into a policy for the first time or are proposing to renew, vary, extend or reinstate a policy you have a duty of disclosure:

Your Duty of Disclosure for new policies

When answering our questions you must be honest and you have a duty under law to tell us anything known to you, and which a reasonable person in the circumstances, would include in the answer to the question. We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure you and anyone else to be insured under the policy, and on what terms.

Your Duty of Disclosure for renewals

If you have already entered into a policy and you are proposing to renew, vary, extend or reinstate the policy your duty of disclosure changes. You have a duty to tell us of everything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to our decision to insure you and to the terms of that insurance. If you are not sure whether something is relevant you should inform us anyway.

Who needs to tell us?

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else that you want to be covered by the policy.

What you are not required to disclose:

Your duty does not require disclosure of matters that:

- reduce the risk
- are common knowledge
- we know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know, and
- we have indicated we do not want to know.

If you do not tell us

If you do not answer our questions in this way or disclose everything you know, we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel the policy. If you answer our questions fraudulently, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat this policy as never having been in force.

Significant Features and Benefits

Your policy provides you with financial protection for your home and/or your home contents (including bicycles) depending on whether you have chosen Section 1 and/or Section 2. Additional cover for your personal property and racing risk under Section 3. Cover for your legal liability as owner and/or occupier of the home is automatically provided under Section 4.

Your home, home contents, personal property and racing for bicycles are covered for accidental loss or damage.

Benefits payable under your policy are listed in the relevant section. For your home (Section 1) and home contents (Section 2) some benefits are payable within the limit of your sum insured, while others are payable as additional benefits. It is important that you select an adequate sum insured in each case.

In addition to the protection provided by your policy, Calliden Insurance offers the following important benefits:

- various discounts – refer 'Cost of Your Policy' on page 4
- a choice of payment methods – refer 'Cost of Your Policy' on page 4
- a choice of excesses – refer 'Excess' on page 5
- a 30 day cooling-off period – refer 'Your Cooling-off Period' on page 1
- new for old replacement
- automatic indexation of your home and/or contents sums insured – refer 'Automatic Indexation' on page 5.

Cost of Your Policy

The amount that we charge you for this insurance when you first acquire your policy and when you renew your policy is called the premium. The premium is the total that we calculate when considering all of the factors which make up the risk, such as:

- the insured value of your home
- contents or valuable items (sums insured)
- the construction material of your home
- the location, type and use of any property being insured
- your previous insurance and claims history.

The total cost of your policy is shown on your policy schedule and is made up of your premium plus Government Taxes such as, GST, Stamp Duty and Fire Service Fees.

Your total insurance premium will also include any discounts that you may be entitled to receive. We currently offer a range of standard discounts including:

- combined home and contents cover
- no claims in the last 1, 2 or 3 years
- security systems
- over 50 years of age.

We may also offer special discounts to some customer groups.

Paying Your Premium

Various options are available for paying your premium.

What happens if you do not pay the cost of your policy by the due date?

We will have the right to cancel your policy if you do not pay your premium by the due date or if your payment method is dishonoured and therefore we have not received your payment by the due date. Unless we tell you, any payment reminder we send does not change the expiry of your cover or the due date of your premium.

Other costs, fees and charges

Other costs, fees and charges which may be applicable to the purchase of your insurance policy include:

| Costs or Fees | Details |
|-------------------|---|
| Refund of Premium | You may cancel your policy at any time. If you choose to cancel your policy we will retain a portion of premium which relates to the period for which you have been insured. We will refund the residue for the unexpired period, less any non-refundable government taxes or charges, provided that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> no event has occurred where liability arises under the policy, and the residue amount is over $20. |
| Commissions | Your broker or insurance intermediary may receive a commission payment from us when your policy is issued and renewed. If you cancel your policy, this commission payment may be non-refundable. For details of the relevant commission paid, please refer to your FSG, SOA or contact your broker or insurance intermediary directly. |

Excess - Standard

Your policy has a standard excess of $300 for each claim made under the home, contents or liability sections. You can also choose from the following alternative standard excesses – $500 or $1,000. The standard excess you have chosen will be shown on your policy schedule. Your premium will be reduced if you choose a higher than standard excess.

In addition to the standard excess, you will be required to pay a further excess of:

- $200 for loss or damage caused by earthquake
- $2,000 for loss or damage caused by flood.

If you make a claim under the personal property section, you will be required to pay an excess of $50 or $100. The amount of the excess will be determined by the item that is lost or damaged. Your policy schedule will show which excess applies to which items.

Excess - Bicycles

- $300 for loss or damage to bikes
- $500 for loss or damage whilst racing (if racing risk is included in schedule under section 3)
- $500 for loss or damage to a carbon frame bike.

GST Information

When we make a payment for the acquisition of goods, services or other supply, we will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any GST input tax credit that you are, or will be, or would have been, entitled to in relation to that acquisition, whether or not that acquisition is actually made.

When we make a payment under this policy as compensation (instead of payment for the acquisition of goods, services or other supply) we will reduce the amount of our payment by the amount of any GST input tax credit that you would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to acquire such goods, services or other supply.

Automatic Indexation

To provide some protection against the effects of inflation we adjust the sums insured for your home and home contents each year as your policy becomes due for renewal. The sums insured are adjusted by a percentage amount determined from time to time to approximate movements in home building costs and the rate of inflation. Your renewal invitation will show the adjusted sums insured and the premium payable. You may choose to vary the sums insured prior to renewing your policy.

In addition, in the event of a claim for a total loss during the period of insurance we will adjust the sums insured for your home and home contents in line with movements in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), as published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics, between the last policy renewal date and the date of the total loss. For example, if your home was insured for $200,000 and the CPI has increased by 3% between your last renewal and the time of the total loss of your home, we will increase your cover for your claim to $206,000.
